ISTRATEGY: A DIFFERENT KIND OF DIGITAL MEDIA CONFERENCE

iStrategy conferences bring together the globe's top marketers for intimate, interactive two-day gatherings. Our speakers are global thought leaders at major brands, and our attendees are CXOs, VPs and Directors from a wide range of verticals, resulting in unmatched learning and networking opportunities.

iStrategy's attendance limits are especially important as they guarantee that you'll be networking with your peers, it's amazing what you can do when no one is trying to sell to you. Because attendees run the gamut from seasoned experts to newbies, you're guaranteed plenty of opportunities to learn, teach and vastly expand your network.

Our sessions are focused on practical, real-life examples of how major brands are aligning digital media and social networking with their unique processes and operations. If building a high-performing, integrated marketing strategy is important, then this is where you need to be this April.
